

AMENDED ORDER BY THE COUNTY JUDGE OF LLANO COUNTY

“Llano County Stay Home-Stay Safe”

Whereas, on April 1, 2020 the Llano County Judge issued the Llano County Stay Home-Stay Safe Order to be effective through April 30, 2020; and

Whereas, the Llano County Stay Home-Stay Safe Order is incorporated by reference as if fully set forth below; and

Whereas, On April 17, 2020 Governor Greg Abbott issued Executive Orders GA-16 relating to the safe re-opening of Texas; and

Whereas, Executive Order GA-16 supersedes GA-14, which restricted non-essential services during the COVID-19 disaster; and

Whereas, Executive Order GA-16, in compliance with guidance from DSHS Commissioner Dr. Hellerstedt and in alignment with the goals established by the President of the United States to reduce the spread of COVID-19, requires every person in Texas to, except where necessary to provide or obtain essential services or reopened services, minimize social gatherings and minimize in-person contact with people who are not in the same household.

Whereas, Executive Order GA-16 remains in effect and in full force until 11:59 on April 30, 2020, unless it is modified, amended, rescinded, or superseded by the governor.

NOW THEREFORE, I, COUNTY JUDGE FOR THE COUNTY OF LLANO, PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY VESTED BY TEXAS GOVERNMENT CODE CHAPTER 418, HEREBY ORDER:

That the current Llano County Stay Home-Stay Safe Order is modified to expire at 11:59 p.m. on April 20, 2020 and the citizens of Llano County shall adhere solely to the guidance provided in Executive Order GA-16 and all other Executive Orders in effect as set forth by the Governor of Texas.

ORDERED this the 20th day of April, 2020, at 3:00 am/pm in Llano County, Texas.

RON CUNNINGHAM
LLANO COUNTY JUDGE
